

Y'S MEN INTERNATIONAL AREA EUROPE

Privacy Policy for Y's Men International Area Europe

This privacy policy explains our handling of personal information collected to exercise our services towards members and others we work with.

The Area President is responsible for handling the data if tasks are not delegated. Inquiries for access, rectification or deletion of personal information can be made to Webmaster/information manager Jens Byskov: jens_byskov@mail.dk

Personal information:

From our leadership within Y's Men International, Area Europe we obtain name, address, phone number, date of birth and e-mail address. This information is the basis for managing the organization.

By joining Y's Men International, Area Europe, you allow the organization to use personal information for:

- Statistical purposes
- Membership conservation
- Sending newsletters
- Sending invitations to events etc.

Upon termination of membership of Y's Men International your personal information will be deleted. Members have full access to their personal data by logging into the organization's database by using e-mail address as username and their own password.

E-mail:

You can send us an email, but remember that all businesses are vulnerable to data theft. Therefore, you should not send sensitive content by email. If we receive such an email, we process the email according to content and delete it immediately.

Newsletter:

As a member of the association of Y's Men International, you can sign up as a recipient of our newsletters.

In order for us to send you a newsletter you need to register your email address with the organization for this specific purpose. This will be saved in a separate database, not shared with others. The e-mail address will be deleted when it is no longer in use.

Use of cookies:

Our website uses cookies.

There is information on the website describing how to prevent cookies from being stored on the computer by changing settings in the browser.

Registration courses and events:

Via our website and newsletter you can register for courses and events.

In addition to collecting normal contact information such as name, address, e-mail and telephone number, we may also collect information about allergies and provision for personal needs.

This personal information will not be used for other purposes than administering the event.

Personal information will be deleted after completion of the event.

We will also ask for your consent for mapping interest and desire to receive an invitation to new events.

Date 14. May 2018 – Version 1.0